(FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE)

2021 VCS Scholarships Awarded

Newport News, VA, June 13, 2021

In November 2009, The Virginia Choral Society (VCS) established the VCS Scholarship Award for a high school graduating senior who desired to continue his/her education with a focus on music performance or education. In 2018, VCS added a second scholarship, the Ronald D. Darone Memorial Scholarship.

VCS is pleased to announce that Ms. Kailyn Wynn has been selected for the 2020 VCS the Ronald D. Darone Memorial Scholarship Award. Kailyn was awarded $2,000 for this scholarship.

Kailyn Wynn, graduated with honors and with an advanced diploma from Churchland High School in Portsmouth. She received outstanding achievement awards in history and music. She is a National Honor Society and a Tri-M Music Honor Society alumna and participated in more than ten performance groups. Kailyn served her school's Tri-M chapter as secretary and was section leader in both her school's concert and chamber choirs. She also helped other students with sight reading and vocal technique, on her own time. She will be attending Old Dominion University to pursue a Bachelor of Music degree in Vocal Performance. Congratulations to Kailyn from the Virginia Choral Society.
